

EA
FORAL DE ÉVORA WHITE

Wine in the Évora region dates back to time immemorial and the Charter granted by Manuel I to the city in 1501 is testament to this. The white wines are produced from Assario, Roupeiro and Arinto grape varieties, with young, fresh and fruity aromas.

EA
FORAL DE ÉVORA WHITE

Wine in the Évora region dates back to time immemorial and the Charter granted by Manuel I to the city in 1501 is testament to this. The white wines are produced from Assario, Roupeiro and Arinto grape varieties, with young, fresh and fruity aromas.

EA
FORAL DE ÉVORA WHITE

Wine in the Évora region dates back to time immemorial and the Charter granted by Manuel I to the city in 1501 is testament to this. The white wines are produced from Assario, Roupeiro and Arinto grape varieties, with young, fresh and fruity aromas.

EA
FORAL DE ÉVORA WHITE

Wine in the Évora region dates back to time immemorial and the Charter granted by Manuel I to the city in 1501 is testament to this. The white wines are produced from Assario, Roupeiro and Arinto grape varieties, with young, fresh and fruity aromas.

