90 pts. YEAR'S BEST GALACIA Wine & Spirits

"This albariño comes from Condado do Tea, a dry, inland subzone of Rías Baixas. Aged on the lees in 600- and 225-liter French oak barrels for six months, this is darker than most albariño, with Sherry-like oxidative aromas and salted pear flavors that may make you wish you were in Green Spain. Pair it with green olives and sheep's cheese."
